BRADLEY ASSAULTS A WOMAN

While Being Shown Lodging, He Choked the Landlady.

Choked the Landlady.

Bruce Bradley, a voung man 24 years of age, attacked an unknown woman last hight and before he was overpowered had hoked her almost into insensibility. Bradley, who was under the influence of future at the time, applied for lodgings at a rooming house in the rear of the daho saloon on State street. As he was being shown a room by a woman, he uddenly, without any apparent reason, cized her by the throat.

Her screams attracted the attention of ler little daughter, who ran for a policenan, crying that her mother was being dilled. Officer Simpson quickly responded, but by the time he reached the woman three men, who were in the vicinity and were attracted by the cries of the title girl, had rescued the woman. Bradey was attempting to escape when Officer Simpson arrested him. He is harged with assault and battery.

FIRE AT MURRAY.—Tomlinson's phoograph gallery at Murray was destroyed by the yesterday afternoon. The fire broke but in the roof, caused by a defective tove pipe that was overheated. The fire was not discovered until it had gained such headway that all efforts to save anything from the place were unavailing. The loss on the building and contents is satimated at about $1.200. The fire did light damage to the residence of Sam Henderson, next to the gallery.

M'GURRIN & CO. got burned out in the Atlas block fire, but they are now located just five doors east, at No. 22 W. 2d South, where they will be glad to see all their old customers and new ones also. We lend money on real estate mortgages, and as we have an extra large amount on hand at this time, we are prepared to make lower rates and better terms than ever. Spring will soon be here, and this is a good time to figure on building homes. Contractors will take jobs for less money now than later. We lend the money to build the house and advance the money as the house goes along. In this way, both the dwner and thing can be bought on a spot cash basis, We don't build the house; this is done according to the owner's plans and specificated. LOST.

We don't build the house: this is done according to the owner's plans and specifications, and by anyone that the owner may select. We merely advance the money. Our advice and suggestion are at the disposal of the owner whenever wanted. Our terms of payment are such that herrowers find it easy to get out of debt. Of course, we want good security, and we regard new, modern houses as being the best security. Can we be of service to you? McGurrin & Co., 22 W. Second South.
